

VENTURE

ACCELERATOR

AT UCLA ANDERSON

KEY FACTS

- A vital support system for ventures launched by UCLA students, faculty and alumni, with an open invitation to non-UCLA teams as well
- Founded in 2016 as a partnership between UCLA Anderson and the Rosenfeld Library to assist companies with product-market assessment
- A curated six-month, immersive program customized by vertical and stage for each company
- A new, 10,000-square-foot, state-of-the-art facility, with 24/7/365 access for active tenants

WHAT WE OFFER OUR STARTUPS

- Programming designed by the Harold and Pauline Price Center for Entrepreneurship & Innovation, as well as connections to the UCLA Anderson Alumni network
- Proof-of-concept grants
- Peer support and mentorship by industry professionals
- Consulting from experts in marketing, PR, sales, product development, financial modeling, legal and fundraising, with preferred pricing available for many of these services
- Weekly workshops with renowned professionals as consultants and speakers
- Biweekly advisory sessions with Accelerator consulting coaches
- Networking events with startup companies, including founder lunches and happy hours
- Culmination Showcase event attended by angel investors, Anderson donors, early-stage venture capitalists, UCLA faculty and staff, and media
