

Translating Research into Practice & Policy

19TH ANNUAL UCLA
NURSING SCIENCE & INNOVATION CONFERENCE

Wednesday, May 31, 2023
Covel Commons

WELCOME TO THE 19TH ANNUAL UCLA NURSING SCIENCE & INNOVATION CONFERENCE

This one-day on-site conference is intended to provide an opportunity to raise awareness of new health care trends, while supporting quality improvement, evidence-based practice, research and innovation at the bedside.

The 2023 conference program features a wide range of topics that highlight the importance of translational research and the development of clinically relevant therapeutic strategies to reduce risk and advance care. We are pleased to welcome our morning & afternoon keynote speakers, Eileen M. Sullivan-Marx, PhD, RN, FAAN, Dean of the New York University Rory Meyers College of Nursing, and Linda L. Chlan, PhD, RN, ATSF, FAAN, Associate Dean for Nursing Research, Mayo Clinic.

The conference will also feature an impressive range of podium and poster presentations representing researchers, clinicians, educators, and students.

A few reminders:

- Please wear your name badge to all conference functions.
- All General and Plenary Sessions will be held in Grand Horizon Room.
- Breakout Sessions and Poster Presentations will be held in various locations. Please see the agenda for details.

Continuing Education (CE) Contact Hours

Nurses will be awarded 5.83 ANCC contact hours for participation in this event. UCLA Health is accredited as a provider of continuing nursing education by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation. Provider approved by the California Board of Registered Nursing, Provider Number 12511 for 7 contact hours.

Instructions for claiming CNE Contact Hours:

To receive CE contact hours, attendees must:

- Be registered as a participant.
- Be seated in the room no later than 10 minutes after the session has started, and remain in the session until the scheduled ending time.
- To obtain ANCC and BRN contact hours, you must complete the online evaluation form in Cornerstone by no later than July 1, 2023.
- For technical assistance with the CE evaluation or certificate, please email researchebp@mednet.ucla.edu.
- Complete the required evaluation and print and/or save certificate.

Presentations

Poster session materials will be available online to registered attendees only through July 1, 2023. You will receive instructions on how to access the presentations in a post-conference email communication.

Social Media

We encourage conference attendees to interact on social media! Follow the conference on Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram using the conference hashtag #UCLANSI23 for the latest updates and to join the conversation. Also, include any of the following in your posts: @UCLAHealth, @UCLANursing.

MORNING PLENARY

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Eileen M. Sullivan-Marx, PhD, RN, FAAN

Immediate Past President, American Academy of Nursing
Dean & Erline Perkins McGriff Professor, New York
University Rory Meyers College of Nursing

Dr. Sullivan-Marx has served as the Dean of the Rory Meyers College of Nursing from 2012-2023 during which she led the school to its now independent status as a college, growing its national reputation as a leader in nursing research, establishing a new home for the college of nursing, raising $50 million including a naming gift for the college.

As an expert in medical payment models, Medicare and Medicaid policy, her research demonstrated how innovative care models can be sustained. As an expert in aging issues she has had extensive experience in city, state and federal commissions and nonprofit boards. She led the prestigious American Academy of Nursing as president during the COVID-19 pandemic while also chairing NYU's Deans Council.

Dr. Sullivan-Marx had an active practice career in community and hospital nursing before becoming a primary care nurse practitioner in 1980 at the University of Rochester. As an NP she established numerous NP roles in aging care and opened her own primary care practice in a rural area in 1988. At Penn, she oversaw the growth and success of a Program for All Inclusive Care for Elders (PACE) in West Philadelphia. She received her diploma, BSN, and PhD from the University of Pennsylvania School of Nursing. Dr. Sullivan-Marx holds adjunct faculty positions at Howard University and the University of Pennsylvania.

AFTERNOON PLENARY

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Linda L. Chlan, PhD, RN, ATSF, FAAN

Associate Dean for Nursing Research, Mayo Clinic

Dr. Linda Chlan is the Associate Dean for Nursing Research with responsibilities to lead Mayo Clinic nursing research across all campuses. In addition to her administrative role, Dr. Chlan maintains an active program of extramurally supported research focused on developing and testing symptom management interventions for critically ill patients receiving mechanical ventilatory support funded by the National Heart, Lung and Blood Institute and the National Institute on Aging, National Institutes of Health. She is a Fellow in the American Academy of Nursing and a Fellow of the American Thoracic Society. She was inducted into the Sigma Theta Tau International Nursing Honor Society's international nursing research Hall of Fame in recognition for the impact of her science.
