Los Angeles County Department of Public Health, Office of Women's Health

The Office of Women's Health (OWH) was established in 1998 to improve health equity, well-being, health outcomes, and access to culturally responsive, comprehensive health services for women in Los Angeles County through county and community collaborations, education, and the promotion of evidence-based programs and policies. The OWH collaborates with community partners on issues affecting women's health, publishes data reports on the health of LA County women, implements programs/campaigns to improve health outcomes, and provides appointments, referrals, information and education for low income women who call OWH's seven language hotline.

Los Angeles LGBT Center

Since 1969 the Los Angeles LGBT Center has cared for, championed, and celebrated LGBT individuals and families in Los Angeles and beyond. Today the Center's more than 600 employees provide services for more LGBT people than any other organization in the world, offering programs, services, and global advocacy that span four broad categories: Health, Social Services and Housing, Culture and Education, Leadership and Advocacy. Despite their size, scope, and determination to meet the growing demand for their services, they remain a lean, fiscally disciplined organization, earning a four-star Charity Navigator rating for six consecutive years. They are an unstoppable force in the fight against bigotry and the struggle to build a better world, a world in which LGBT people can be healthy, equal, and complete members of society.
