

Family Medicine Grand Rounds

“Centering the Margins: Health Equity in California.”

Dilara K. Üsküp, Ph.D., Ph.D.

Dr. Üsküp is an Investigator in the Department of Family Medicine at the University of California, Los Angeles and an Assistant Professor in Internal Medicine at Charles R. Drew University of Medicine and Sciences. She is a joint doctoral graduate of the University of Chicago's Department of Political Science and the Divinity School.

Her research investigates the ways religious and political institutions, attitudes, and ideology interacts and shape health behavior to inform public policy. She is also an ordained minister. Her burgeoning research portfolio includes the areas of politics and theology, HIV prevention, cannabis and social equity, and health policy. She is co-principal investigator of CaliCANN, a demographic analysis of the state of California cannabis market.
