

SUBJECT: PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES OUTSIDE THE SCOPE OF TRAINING
(“MOONLIGHTING”)

PURPOSE

To comply with the tenets of the American Board of Otolaryngology and the Residency Review Committee in Otolaryngology of the ACGME.

POLICY

“Moonlighting” activities of professional employment outside of the training program may interfere with a trainee’s ability to achieve the goals and objectives of the educational program. The Division of Head and Neck surgery does not encourage professional activities outside the scope of training. It is the policy of the Division of head and Neck Surgery Training Program that absolutely no “moonlighting” or any type of outside employment may occur.

Violation of this policy may result in immediate dismissal from the training program.
