

I. EDUCATIONAL GOALS, OBJECTIVES, AND COMPETENCIES

Goals & Rotation Objectives	Competencies on which residents will be evaluated
	Patient Care	Medical Knowledge	Professionalism	Interpersonal Communication Skills	Practice-based Learning	Systems-based Practice
Provide comprehensive care of hospitalized geriatric patients	X	X	X	X	X	X
Recognize differences in disease presentation in geriatric patients	X	X
Develop medical interviewing and physical diagnosis skills in older adults	X	X	X	X
Know how to formulate a differential diagnosis and appropriate plan of care in the presence of multi-morbidity	X	X			X
Recognize and manage common geriatric syndromes	X	X		X	X
Efficiently and effectively chart daily progress notes	X		X		X
Apply evidence-based, cost-effective strategies to diagnose and manage diseases in geriatric patients	X	X			X
Work in a community hospital environment	X					X
Manage medical problems over the phone when appropriate	X	X	X	X	X
Utilize consultation services and diagnostic testing appropriately	X	X			X	X
Participate in family meetings and develop effective communication skills	X		X	X
Function effectively as leader of the interdisciplinary team to ensure proper care and welfare of patients	X		X	X		X
Conduct effective goals of care discussions and address end of life issues with patients and family members/surrogates	X	X	X	X	X

Understand the importance of functional status assessment in the determination of the patient's appropriate level of care upon discharge	X	X			X	X
Effectively and safely facilitate care transitions from hospital to home, nursing home, and other residential facilities	X			X	X	X
Understand the capabilities of medical care in the nursing home	X				X	X
Understand the multiple factors involved in effective and successful discharge planning of geriatric patients	X	X				X