

ACHA Webinars Presents:

ACHA ADVOCACY UPDATE 2013

Tuesday, March 5, 2013, 7 p.m. - 8 p.m. EST

Presenter:
Amy Basken
ACHA Public Policy Manager

About the Webinar

Help us celebrate and motivate! Whether a seasoned veteran advocate, or wanting to learn more about our advocacy program, join us for our ACHA Advocacy Update 2013. Participants will learn about our 2012 accomplishments and get an update on our priorities for 2013. Plus, learn how you can get involved, whether from the comfort of your own home, or visiting your lawmakers in Washington, D.C. If you are planning on attending Advocacy Day, this is an excellent opportunity to learn more about our issues and ask questions about this exciting event.

About the Speaker

Amy Basken is currently working as Public Policy Manager for ACHA. She is mom to Nicholas, an 8-year-old CHD survivor. Her advocacy efforts began shortly after his birth, as a mom-on-a-mission, evolving into her role today. She has seen the impact of telling your story and believes in empowering the advocates.

About the Adult Congenital Heart Association

The Adult Congenital Heart Association (ACHA) is a nonprofit organization that seeks to improve the quality of life and extend the lives of congenital heart defect survivors. Through education, outreach, advocacy and promotion of research, ACHA serves and supports the more than 1.8 million individuals with congenital heart defects, their families, and the medical community. If you would like to find out more about our programming, visit our website, www.achaheart.org. To support ACHA's mission to improve and prolong the lives of heart defect survivors, you can make a donation on our website.

This webinar was made possible in part by an unrestricted educational grant from Actelion.
