

THE DAPM HANDOFF

September 2025

Dear Colleagues,

It is once again a great pleasure to share the latest edition of the DAPM Handoff with you. Every two months, before releasing the issue to our broader community, I take time to review its content—and each time I am both amazed and inspired by what you are accomplishing. This month is no exception. The issue reflects everything we strive for as a Department: Excellence across all dimensions of academic medicine, grounded in camaraderie and humanism.

This month, I encourage you to pay particular attention to the outstanding research productivity of our colleagues. Research is central to our identity as a Department and as a community. We would not be who we are without a strong research program—supported by dedicated faculty, trainees, and staff. Even amid significant challenges, our research mission has never been more impactful. This success reflects not only the exceptional talent within our Division of Molecular Medicine and across our research programs, but also the culture that each of you helps to build: one that values and sustains the vital work of our researchers. This is the culture we are committed to.

Please read on for the following highlights:

- Spotlight on the Division of Cardiothoracic Anesthesiology
- HumAnes of UCLA Profiles: Quenesha Caballero and David Boldt
- Residency Graduation and Retirement Celebration
- Nicole Nguyen, MD, receives DGSOM Excellence in Teaching with Humanism Award
- Mingxia Giu, MD, PhD, published in Cell: "Co-development of mesoderm and endoderm enables organotypic vascularization in lung and gut organoids"
- A warm welcome to new DAPM members
- Invitation to complete Fall Well-Being and Burnout Survey

Finally, please take a moment to check that your user profile contact details are accurate in C8 Health.

FACULTY DEVELOPMENT & CAREER ADVANCEMENT

- Faculty Development & Career Advancement (FDCA) and Faculty Affairs announced expanded mentoring support for faculty of all ranks.
- Revised DAPM Mentoring Process is now available on C8.
- New Mentor Dashboard shows available mentors and their areas of mentoring expertise. Faculty can use this dashboard to search for new primary career mentors, or to form a mentoring network in support of their goals. Faculty interested in mentoring others can submit their information using the Mentor Intake & Update Form.
- Drs. Antongiorgi, Van de Wiele, and Whittington are also available to mentors for consultation and can provide resources and additional sponsorship.
- All of these new resources can be accessed in the Mentor and Mentee Toolkits on C8.

UPCOMING EVENTS

Peer Support Training

Thursday, September 18 | 4:30 PM

This virtual session is part of our quarterly series and will repeat content from the previous session. Participants will receive a well-being bundle and Peer Support Team badge buddy.

BIOINFORMATICS & PERIOPERATIVE ANALYTICS

We would like to extend a warm welcome to the inaugural members of the DAPM Resident Informaticist Track: Austin Du, MD, and Lori Laddaran, MD.

The DAPM Resident Informaticist Track is an educational initiative aimed at providing a comprehensive, longitudinal training experience for anesthesiology residents who are interested in health informatics throughout their three years of residency. Participants will work closely with faculty and staff in the DAPM Division of Bioinformatics and Perioperative Analytics to build expertise and become the next generation of leaders in health information technology and innovation.

Key topics covered include database querying and analysis, result reporting and visualization, EHR user optimization and change management, health IT governance and leadership, as well as emerging areas such as machine learning and artificial intelligence. Residents are expected to complete a Capstone Project that applies these skills and leverages the robust clinical and IT resources we have here at DAPM.

Please join us in congratulating Dr. Du and Dr. Laddaran as they embark on this exciting journey to advance the future of health informatics! If you have any questions or suggestions regarding the Resident Informaticist Track, please contact Dr. Zhi Dong at xdong@mednet.ucla.edu.

QUALITY & PATIENT SAFETY

We still have work to accomplish to achieve compliance with the removal of PPE when leaving the OR areas:

- If you have your mask loose around your neck, please remove the mask or place it appropriately over your airway.
- Please remove any disposable head coverings when leaving the area.

Thank you for your help with this important regulatory requirement!

HEALTH & WELL-BEING

Beach Volleyball and Dodgers Game were great events. Thank you for joining us and stay tuned for fall announcements!

Fall Well-Being & Burnout Survey – Your Voice Matters.

This fall, DAPM will launch its annual Well-being and Burnout Survey. Your anonymous input is essential to help us improve team well-being and advance research in this area.

Highlights:

- Open to all department members—trainees, faculty, CRNAs, researchers, and staff
- IRB-approved and fully anonymous
- Quick to complete (10–30 minutes)
- Optional raffle entry available after completion
- Trainees will be invited to a brief follow-up survey

Stay tuned for the launch date—we're looking forward to hearing from you!

Spotlight on Emotional Distress after Challenging Clinical Events

This month, we are highlighting a powerful and recently published qualitative study that clarifies the emotional toll of high-stakes clinical work for anesthesiologists:

Burns CJ, Marzoughi M, Sinko L, et al. “The pain and suffering are just too great for me to manage”: A qualitative study of emotional distress among anesthesiologists after challenging clinical events. Anesthesiology. Epub ahead of print. July 17, 2025.
doi:10.1097/ALN.0000000000005660

Why it matters: Anesthesiologists often manage intense clinical situations. This study helps clarify the clinical, contextual, and patient-related risk factors that contribute to emotional distress, helping identify how support may be triaged and targeted to those who most need it. We invite you to read it and share your reflections!

INCLUSIVE EXCELLENCE

September is Women in Medicine Month, recognizing the contributions of women physicians, residents, and medical students who are advancing equity in health care. You can explore opportunities for advocacy, policy, and education through the AMA Women in Medicine Month site. We also invite you to join the DAPM Womxn in Anesthesia Listserv, a space for womxn in our department to connect with one another, share and receive mentorship, highlight upcoming events, and offer support for the unique needs of all womxn in our community.

UCLA Health's Affinity Group - La Comunidad invites you to celebrate with us September 15 through October 15!

We are proud to celebrate Hispanic, Latino & Latinx Heritage Month with programming that uplifts and honors our community. Guided by this year's theme, "Somos LA: Honoring our roots, our power and our future," we recognize the invaluable contributions of our Hispanic, Latino, and Latinx students, trainees, staff, and faculty who help drive UCLA Health's mission forward and champion health equity.
