

THREE YEARS OF COVID-19

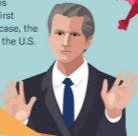

We are approaching the three-year anniversary of the COVID-19 pandemic, and keeping up with the often rapid pace of developments has been a challenge. Here's a look back at some milestones.

2020

JAN 25

CDC confirms California's first coronavirus case, the third case in the U.S.

MARCH 11

WHO declares coronavirus a pandemic. President Trump bans travelers from parts of Europe from entering U.S. for 30 days.

MARCH 4

Gov. Newsom declares state of emergency in California.

APRIL 3

CDC and White House Coronavirus Task Force recommend Americans mask in public.

MARCH 13

President Trump declares national emergency. LA Unified School District announces school closures.

Gov. Newsom issues statewide shelter-in-place order. Most non-essential retail businesses closed.

MARCH 19

JUNE 18

Gov. Newsom issues statewide mask mandate.

OCT 22

Remdesivir becomes first drug approved by FDA to treat COVID-19.

JULY 27

Pfizer and Moderna begin large-scale trials of potential COVID-19 vaccines.

DEC 18

FDA grants emergency-use authorization to Moderna vaccine.

2021

JAN 12

Federal government tells states to begin vaccinating all Americans age 65 and older.

DEC 11

FDA approves emergency-use authorization for Pfizer vaccine.

JAN 25

Gov. Newsom cancels state's stay-at-home order. Some services allowed to reopen with limited capacity.

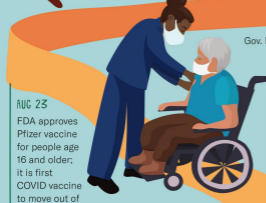

FEB 27

FDA grants emergency-use authorization for Johnson & Johnson vaccine.

MARCH 25

Gov. Newsom announces all California residents age 16 or older can get vaccine beginning in April.

AUG 23

FDA approves Pfizer vaccine for people age 16 and older; it is first COVID vaccine to move out of emergency-use authorization in the U.S.

OCT 20

FDA authorizes booster shots for older recipients of Moderna and Johnson & Johnson vaccines.

DEC 22&23

FDA gives emergency-use authorization for two COVID-19 antiviral pills to treat people with mild to moderate cases.

NOV 2

CDC approves Pfizer's vaccine for children ages 5 to 11.

DEC 2

First case of omicron variant in U.S. identified in California patient.

2022

JAN 3

FDA authorizes Pfizer booster for children ages 12 to 15.

MARCH 3

Low levels of community transmission lead Los Angeles County to suspend indoor mask mandate.

MARCH 7

Global death toll passes 6 million.

6 MILLION

MARCH 29

FDA authorizes second COVID-19 booster dose for adults 50 and older, with additional booster dose approved for anyone with a weakened immune system age 12 and older.

MARCH 24

World Health Organization announces that subvariant BA.2 is dominant version of omicron.

JUNE 17

FDA authorizes COVID-19 vaccines for children as young as 6 months.

1 MILLION

MAY 17

U.S. surpasses 1 million COVID-19 deaths.

APRIL 25

FDA approves antiviral drug remdesivir for children with COVID-19 as young as 28 days old and weighing at least 6.6 pounds. weakened immune system age 12 and older.

AUG 31

FDA authorizes new COVID-19 boosters targeting the BA.5 omicron variant.

OCT 12

FDA authorizes updated COVID-19 booster doses for children as young as 5.

